Experience:

Prior to working at VTS, Charlotte has had many years of experience in Early Years settings including managerial responsibilities.

She has also had experience working with children with additional support needs as well as complex needs. She has detailed knowledge of meeting many needs of children including those in residential settings.

Charlotte is one of our Senior Tutors. She guides and mentors other tutors when they are new to VTS and plays an active role in developing and extending the curriculums she delivers.

Personal Hobbies:

Charlotte is a mum of 2 children and loves her dogs. She loves to get creative and messy play is her favourite, the nursery practitioner never leaves her. She also loves the sun, beach and building memories with her family.

Charlotte loves keeping in touch within Early Years and seeing how her practitioners and settings work. She enjoys watching her learners interact and engage with the children, seeing the expressions of them both as they grow together.
