

VTS MANAGEMENT PROFILE

Name: Emma Henigan

Role: Managing Director

Joined VTS: 2007

Emma is responsible for:

- Overall running of the business
- Line managing the senior leadership team
- Financial processes
- Staff recruitment

Experience:

Prior to working at VTS, Emma started her career in childcare and worked her way up to be a nursery manager. Emma then gained experience at another training provider as a trainee apprenticeship tutor in Early Years, before progressing and becoming an Internal Quality Assurer.

Emma joined VTS in 2007 as a tutor and Internal Quality Assurer in Early Years. She was promoted to IQA Lead in 2016, a role that grew and developed over time. By 2018, Emma had become the Quality and Operations Manager for VTS. In 2023, she was appointed as a director, and following the previous CEO's retirement, Emma fully took on the Managing Director role in August 2024.

Personal Hobbies:

Emma enjoys spending time with her family and travelling to various places around the world.

Beyond her love for family and travel, Emma also loves attending theatre performances, as well as concerts to see her favourite bands and artists.

Emma also has a passion for reading a wide range of books, eager to lose herself in a new story.
